"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in may be found. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Here is an example worth read-

Mrs. Catherine Hogan, 22 Hickory
Street, Norwich, Conn., says: "I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at N. D. Sevin's Drug Store, as highly today as when I gave a public statement in their praise three years ago. This remedy cured me of a severe attack of kidney complaint, causing the pains in my back and trouble with the kidney secretions to disappear after everything else had failed to help me. I will always recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Hogan had—the remedy backed by home testimony, 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

OIL STOVE EXPLODED IN UNION ST. HOUSE

Woodwork of Room and Chair Burned in Home of Mrs. Laura French.

The Main street chemical company and a company from the Central station were called out about 8 o'clock Friday evening for a fire in the 2 1-2 story wooden building at 56 Union The fire was in the apartments occupied by Mrs. Laura French and was caused by the exploding of an oil stove. The fiames had a good start when the firemen arrived, but they were quickly extinguished with the were quickly extinguished with chemical. The woodwork of the tenement was somewhat damaged and a chair was practically destroyed. The quick work of the firemen probably prevented a bad fire.

Set-off Hearing Pestponed.

There was a postponement in a hearing on a claim of set-off against United Railway company's notes in the Thames Loan and Trust Co. receivership. Receiver Charles F. Thayer applied for advice as to whether a deposit of the United Railways Co. of $2,396.42 in the commercial department of the Trust Co. can be set off against the debt evidenced by certain notes of the United Railways Co. which are held among the assets of the Trust Co. These notes are collateral trust notes, so called, in classes A and B, and are of the face value of $53,188.91, but were appraised as of no market value, and so far as the receiver knows are of no market value. He says in his petition for advice. He further states that the trustees have in their hands sufficient property and funds to pay 25 per cent, of the class A notes. It is shown that Francis de C. Sullivan of New York. Silas W. C. Jones of Greenwich, Franklin S. Jerome and Robert W. Perkins were the trusted Railways Co. is a New Jersey corporation, with Leonard T. Saunders as president and John M. Walton secretary, these two officers signing the agreement with the trustees which was dated Aug. 1, 1909. Class A notes were to be issued in amount not to exceed $300,000 and class B notes to be issued in such total amount as might be necessary to acquire such accounts payable of the Norwich and Westerly Railways Co. as the United Railways Co. might deem desirable to obtain.

In presenting his resignation as chairman of the board of trustees of the Connecticut College for Women at the annual meeting held at New London Friday, Commodore Morton F. Plant stated that his action in relinquishing the chairmanship was because of pressure of business. He added that he was glad to remain as a member of the board.

the board.

F. Valentine Chappell of New London was chosen chairman of the trustees, to succeed Commodore Plant.

Governor Simeon E. Baldwin and Congressman B. F. Mahan attended the meeting. All of the trustees who have served during the past three years will continue for another year.

At the meeting of the trustees it was voted to advertise at once for bids for the construction of a refectory, science hall and three dormitories and a power house. The completed plans and specifications were on hand from the office of the architects.

GROWN-UPS ENJOYED

CRADLE ROLL PROGRAMME. Thirty Little People Under Six Enter tained at Osgood Memorial.

The annual cradle roll for Park Congregational church was held Priday afternoon in the Osgood Memorial. The 30 young persons under six years of age who were entertained by Mrs. Oliver L. Johnson gave the pariors an extremely festive air and a large number of grown-up people enjoyed the occasion equally as well. Besides the games, a short missionary programme was conducted by Mrs. Johnson. After the opening song by the children, with Mrs. Grosvenor Ely at the piano, prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. S. H. Howe. A Mother's Morning Prayer was the title of a poem read by Mrs. Howe. Short recitations were given by Marion Gallaudet and by Frances Coit, Learned and Grosvenor Ely, Jr., together. ed and Grosvenor Ely, Jr., together. After a missionary story by Mrs. Johnson, other recitations were given by Esther Marsh, Eloise Smith and Paul Turner. Certificates were given to five new members of the cradle roll, Laura Machette, Richard Chester Johnson, Stuart Eugene Babcock, Thomas Wil-bur Eastwood and William Wheeler bur Eastwood and William Wheeler Leonard, Jr. Nearly $10 was given in the mite boxes. The pariors were prettily decorated with spring flowers and refreshments were served by the social committee, Mrs. Frank H. Pullen, chairman, Mrs. William H. Allen, Mrs. W. Tyler Browne and Mrs. Charles W. Prentice.

The children were seated at one long table for their simple party fare and their grown up friends were given afternoon tea.

M. Kimball Prize Speaking Winner

Principal Tirrell Thursday announced at the opening of school that the fudges of the Newton Perkins prize speaking contest had awarded the prize to R. M. Kimball, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Kimball, of Spruce street. Honorable mention was given to R. D. Hill and J. E. Hughes.

There was some testimony by Mr. Perkins and discussions by Mr. Thayer and Lawyers Panning. Brown and Shields in regard to the notes of United Railways company of New Jersey of which the bank was the trustee. The notes amount to $65,183,11 and the appraisars said they were valueless but Mr. Perkins said the notes have value and spoke of 25 percent. The company has the sum of $2,856,42 in the bank. Mr. Perkins is treasurer of the funda of the company. Judge Brown said he had not heard of the matter before and as the amount was very large he asked for time, as did Mr. Fanning. The matter went over for a week and Mr. Thayer said he would provide the lawyers with copies of the document under which the notes were obtained.

Mr. Shields said the notes could not be paid for 2 years under agreement.

Assignments.

The following assignments for trial were made:

Wednesday, June 3—Ellen Pitagerald vs. J. B. Shannon (on trial), Mary F. Rogers vs. city of New London.

Thursday, June 4—Max Skoczilos vs. New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Co. and New England Transportation Co. vs. Charles H. Haskell,

The case of Charles J. Joslyn against the Connecticut Co. and Ponemah Mills Co. vs. Connecticut Co., both Norwich cases, were reported to have been settled.

George A. Ayer of this city was given a divorce from Mabel E. Ayer, formerly of Griswold, but now in New Jersey. Her malden name was Tattersall and they were married on the fifth of January, 1896. Twelve years later in May she descrited him, it was alleged. They have one child.

Attorney C. L. Stewart represented Mr. Ayer, who testified that he was married in Preston and that while they were living in Jersey City Mrs. Ayer took the two children and went to Providence and that later when he called upon her in Providence she told him she did not want to live in Jewett City. One of the children has died but the other is with Mrs. Ayer, in Paterson, N. J. Mr. Ayer had deeded a place in Preston and another in Jewett City to his wife and she had sold both of them. Mr. Ayer told the court that the only trouble between them was that Mrs. Ayer claimed she did not get as many things as she wanted.

Shepard F. Brown of Jewett City, a half-brother of Mr. Ayer, Dr. S. H. Holmes of Jewett City and Mrs. Mary E. Sweet of Voluntown all testified that Mr. Ayer provided well for his family.
